Decorate a dining room with this beautiful and functional antique enfilade. Crafted in the Burgundy region of France circa 1780, and built with solid walnut, the cabinet stands on curved feet over a scalloped apron. The buffet has three drawers across the front, dressed with iron pulls, and features three doors with arched decor and recessed panels, all separated with carved decorative spline motifs. The inside reveals center shelving for ultimate storage. The long rectangular top built with two boards is embellished with molded edge. The heavy Louis XV enfilade is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a beautiful and rich walnut patina. A wonderful cabinet for linen, dishes; versatile, it could also be used under a large flat screen TV in a den, or in a hallway for extra storage! 2 keys included. Measures: 77.5" W x 22.25" D x 40.75" H.
