This cruet set was created in England circa 1880. Built of silver, the holder stands on a conforming circular base over a band decorated with repousse medallions of female figures. The display piece features six crystal containers, with includes a bottle for salt, pepper, sugar, oil and vinegar. The top triangle-form handle is embellished with male faces medallions. The decorative display set is in excellent condition and adorns a beautiful silvered finish. 8" Diameter 16.5" H
