Decorate a ranch or hunting lodge with this important antique three-door Black Forest sideboard. Crafted in France, circa 1870, the highly detailed buffet stands on bun feet over a wide bottom plinth with recessed corners. The long cabinet decorated with barley twist columns on the sides, features three carved drawers across the front decorated with floral and leaf motif, and dressed with grotesque-style mask handles. The three doors are heavily carved in high relief; both side panels depict floral wreaths tied with ribbons, while the center panel showcases a more elaborate carving of a bird surrounded by wheat sheaves, symbolizing abundance. The inside reveals center shelving for ultimate storage. The large and elegant enfilade is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich oak patinated finish. Place this spectacular Louis XIII style enfilade in a breakfast or dining room! Keys included. Measures: 78.75" W x 24.75" D x 39" H.
