Decorate a dining table or a console with this elegant antique centerpiece. Crafted in France circa 1890, and signed Tisserand, the colorful tray stands on small curved feet over an oval porcelain plate decorated with a Champlevé border with floral and plant decor, and embellished with a double bronze binding dressed with side handles. The center porcelain features a hand painted young woman holding a harp in the foreground and a pond, trees, and birds in the background. The work of art is in good condition commensurate with age and use (chip on the bottom see detailed images). The artist sense of color and shading captures an excellent picturesque scene perfect for any home! Stamped "France" for on the back for further authenticity. Measures 15"W x 12.5"D x 4"H
