This elegant antique shelf was created in France circa 1870. Built of oak wood, the free standing display shelf stands on tapered legs over spline columns decorated at the top with cone shaped finials. The piece is dressed with four shelves for ultimate display. The Louis XVI style cabinet is in excellent condition and adorns a rich rubbed patinated painted finish in the grey palette. Versatile, the shelving could be used for a display collection or in a workout room to keep your towels organized and neat! 29.75"W x 17.5"D x 54.5"H
