Crafted in southern France circa 1880, the antique table sits on a cast iron trestle base with elegant cabriole legs ending with scrolled feet, and joined together with a double decorative stretcher. The Provencal table is dressed with the original rectangular white and grey veins marble top. The classic Louis XV style table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns the original hand painted green finish. Versatile, this bistrot table could be used as a small pastry table in a kitchen, against a wall as a console table, or outside on a patio to provide extra surface space for drinks or food. A few old chips on the marble top which have smoothed out over time from age and use (see detailed images). Measures: 35.25" W x 20.25" D x 27.25" H
