Decorate a entryway or living room with this large antique painted mirror. Crafted in France circa 1880 and almost five feet wide, the frame features intricate carvings, including floral and foliate motifs in each corner, and embellished at the pediment with a large central cartouche of flowers, leaves, and ribbons surrounded with a laurel leaf crown in high relief. The frame's finish features a weathered patina, with traces of light blue and gold highlighting the fine details, giving it a distressed and timeworn appearance that enhances its antique charm. The thick rectangular frame is dressed with a beveled glass, beads decor around the perimeter, and a wood backing from latter addition. The Louis XVI style mirror is in excellent condition, and adorns a rich hand painted green finish with gilt accents throughout. Place this elegant mirror over a console or buffet in a dining room! 59.75"W x 38.5"H
