

EARLY 19TH CENTURY ENGLISH LEATHER BOUND ILLUSTRATED FAMILY HOLY BIBLE

$1,900

SKU: 243-370

Stock: N/A

Categories: New Arrivals, Religious Accents

Study the word of Gog with this beautiful antique Bible. Printed in Bungay, England by Brightly and Childs circa 1814, the book showcases a sturdy leather binding with a prominent red title label marked "BIBLE" and gold tooling along the spine bands. The bible is an edition of The Self-Interpreting Bible by Rev. John Brown. The title page highlights its extensive content, including paraphrases, chapter analyses, introductions, notes, and evangelical reflections. It also being "embellished with forty beautiful engravings." Key Features of The Self-Interpreting Bible: Content: It includes both the Old and New Testaments with references, illustrations, and paraphrases summarizing difficult or obscure sections. Analysis: Each chapter features an analysis of its content, providing readers with clarity on key points. Extensive Introduction: Detailed explanations, evangelical reflections, and historical notes are included for deeper understanding. Engravings: This edition is embellished with "forty beautiful engravings," showcasing fine illustrations, a hallmark of early 19th-century Bibles. Author: John Brown (1722-1787), a Scottish minister, was renowned for his scholarly yet practical approach to Bible interpretation. The bible is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich patinated leather with gilt accents, and antiqued brass finish. Measures: 11" W x 17" H.