This unique, antique floor lamp was crafted in Northern France, circa 1920. Standing on three bun feet over a circular base, the lamp boasts a barley twist stem, with a central round ledge surface featuring intricately carved motifs along its edge. The tall light fixture is dressed with a real wax candle, and has new wiring with a single light; it is further embellished with a convenient on and off foot switch. The free standing Louis XIII style floor lamp with tray table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich walnut patina. Place this elegant and practical fixture next to your favorite armchair, and use the attached table to rest your coffee or tea cup! Shade not included. Measures: 18" diameter 70" height.
