Brighten an entry or a powder room with this elegant antique chandelier. Crafted in Paris, France, circa 1920 and built of bronze, the chandelier features an intricately designed central dish with floral garland motifs and dressed with a prominent cone-shaped finial; it is further embellished with a large flame finial over the patinated green dome. All six arms are decorated with beautifully sculpted swan motifs, and each light has been newly wired and dressed with a decorative candle sleeve cover. The fixture has the original three long chains ending with a decorative crown at the top. The sophisticated Empire style chandelier is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich two-tone gilt and green patinated finish. Measures: 22.75" diameter 28.5" height.
