Decorate a ranch or a hunting lodge with these elegant framed antique watercolor prints, featuring riders in brilliant red hunting jackets and stately top hats astride beautifully groomed horses and accompanied by athletic speckled dogs. Crafted in France, circa 1920, the first piece depicts a hunt scene with riders on horseback leaping over a creek as their dogs swim across, with a small village in the background. The second piece shows another group on horseback relaxed in a group with a windmill in the back. The last piece is a group on the hunt taking a break outside a small restaurant, receiving a drink from the restaurant keeper. These traditional French hunting scenes are set in dark wooden frames, green matte borders, with gold embellishments with a protective glass over the art work. The wall decoration is in great condition with wonderful details. These stately classic watercolor prints are painted in the style of Heywood Hardy and would elevate any office, living room, or den. Measures: 22.75" W x 18.75" H.
