Display your Bible, music score or your favorite recipe book on this decorative, antique stand! Crafted in France circa 1920 and made of iron, the book holder sits on four small scroll feet decorated with acanthus leaf motifs. The stand features an elegant lyre decor in the center, over the tray holder. The Louis XV style table book stand is in excellent condition with a rich patinated gilt finish, and would make a charming old world addition to a kitchen, library or den. Measures: 19" W x 9.25" D x 14" H.
