Decorate a powder room or entryway with this elegant antique gilt mirror. Crafted in France, circa 1920, the ornate pierced frame features a leaf decor cartouche at the pediment flanked with flowing curves, floral motifs, and elaborate acanthus leaf details, all of which exemplify the opulence and elegance of the Rococo period. The craftsmanship highlights the delicate and symmetrical balance of decorative elements, creating a sense of movement and vitality in the frame's design. The gilding, which gives the piece its radiant gold finish, adds a luxurious touch, complementing the artistry of the carvings. The oval beveled glass sits perfectly within the ornate frame, making it an ideal decorative piece for a classic or sophisticated interior. The Louis XV style wall mirror it is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a beautiful and rich gold leaf finish. This mirror not only serves a functional purpose but also acts as a statement piece, reflecting the timeless beauty and craftsmanship of its era. It would be a striking addition to any home, adding both historical charm and elegance. 24.5"W x 37"H
