Decorate a wall or a shelf with this colorful set of hand painted Majolica asparagus plates. Crafted in France, circa 1920, each plate with scalloped edges, features seven asparagus in high relief displayed on the bottom of the plate. The decorative barbotine plates are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and beautifully hand painted in a palette of different green shades and beige. Stamped on the bottom with number 1139 for further authentication. Measures: 10.25" Diameter
