Grind spices in your kitchen with this hand carved, antique white stone mortar. Created in Greece, circa 1880, this traditional mortar and pestle is round in shape and has a shell-like scalloped detail. The heavy cooking tool is in very good condition, and adorns a rich patinated finish; it would make a Classic addition to your kitchen counter. Weighs 24 pounds.

Measures: 12.5" W x 9.25" D x 7" H
