Incorporate extra, functional surface space into your living room with this elegant antique table. Crafted in the Perigord region of France, circa 1850, the side table features a single drawer across the front with the original wooden knob. The elegant writing table stands on four beautifully intricate barley twist legs, embellished with a thick stretcher at the base also hand carved and decorated with a central finial. The versatile Louis XIII small desk is in excellent condition with a rich walnut patina. Intricate, beautifully carved and versatile, this sturdy side table could be used anywhere. Measures: 39.5" W x 26" D x 28.5" H.
