Place these large vases at your front or back door! Crafted in France circa 1850, the antique Campana form urns stand on a square base with a wide mouth at the top, and feature the original painted and weathered finish. The tall Medici planters are in excellent condition with rich patinated painted colors in the beige and green palette and evidence of outdoor use. Incorporate them into your garden filled with flowers. One vessel 2" taller than the other. Measures: 21" diameter 27.25" height.
