Crafted in China circa 1960 and oval in shape with bombe sides, the vintage porcelain basin is dressed with two side handles; it is decorated with hand painted floral motifs around the perimeter of the pot, the inside features painted fish and flower decor all in a blue and white palette. This elegant and colorful jardinière is in excellent condition, and would make a wonderful centerpiece on a dining room table or a console filled with flowers. The large bowl is further stamped on the underside with blue five character marks for further authentication. Measures: 21.5" W x 14.5" D x 8" H.
