Place this tall, elegant stand at your front door or in your mudroom to catch loose canes and umbrellas. Crafted in France, circa 1950 by Gédé, the circular porcelain umbrella holder features colorful hand painted pastoral scene with a Sheppard guiding sheep through a forest, with cloud motifs in the background which adds further realism to the art. The umbrella stand is in excellent condition and adorns rich and well maintained colors in the blue and white palette. Signed on the underside "Gédé for further authentication. A perfect addition to a ranch or hunting lodge. 8.5" diameter 21.25" height.
