Crafted in France circa 1950, and attributed to Maison Baguès in Paris, the elegant, midcentury brass side table is both useful and stylish. The petite occasional table is square in shape, with wonderful, clean lines and a modern, neoclassical sensibility; the frame stands on spline legs ending with tapered feet, and further embellished with flame shape top finials. The two-tier table is dressed with inset clear glass surfaces. The end table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich patinated gilt finish. Place it in a living room, library, office or bedroom, whichever is your go-to reading room! Since 1860, The Maison Baguès has been located in the center of Paris and specializes in the creation of luxury furniture and lighting. Early on, it became the emblem of French "Savoir-Faire" in wrought iron work, along with French craftsmanship, which is highly valued internationally. Measures: 15" W x 15" D x 23.5" H.
