Add a beautiful shine to your home with this eye-catching gilt wood sun mirror. Hand carved in France circa 1990, the vintage mirror features a convex, circular center, which is surrounded by a series of radiating, gilded rays, a design element that harkens back to classical motifs often seen in 18th-century French design. This type of mirror became particularly popular in the 19th century and was often used as a decorative statement piece in various interior settings. The gilded finish and the convex mirror, sometimes referred to as a "witch's eye" mirror, are characteristic of sunburst mirrors from the period and add a touch of elegance and grandeur to a space. This specific piece, with its bold, radiating lines and rich golden hue, could be a vintage or reproduction of a sunburst mirror, reflecting the enduring appeal of this decorative style. The wall decor is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich gilt painted finish. This elegant wall mirror would be a nice addition to a living room or hallway.
