Decorate a wine cellar with this exquisite antique wine storage cabinet with wall mounted brackets. Forged in the Burgundy region of France and rectangular in shape with arched top, the open cage built of forged iron, features two hinged doors with working padlocks. When opened, the cabinet reveals 15 rows, each row accommodating up to 3 bottles, for a total of 44 bottles! The heavy wine rack is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a black and silver polished iron finish. Key and lock included; a great way to keep your expensive bottles safe and secure! Weight over 90 pounds. The French wine region of Burgundy (aka "Bourgogne") may be small in size, but its influence is huge in the world of vino. The complexity of Burgundy can cast fear into the heart of even a seasoned wine pro, but fear not - the region need only be as complicated as you want it to be. Yes, it is home to some of the most expensive wines in the known universe, but there are also tasty and affordable wines. Located in the east-central part of France, Burgundy has 5 primary wine growing areas (not including Beaujolais and Châtillonnais): Chablis, Côte de Nuits, Côte de Beaune, Côte Chalonnaise, and Mâconnais. Measures: 15.25" W x 15" D x 77.5" H.
