Add a touch of timeless charm to your home with this set of sixteen carved stone fruits, perfect for styling an entryway console, dining room table, or kitchen counter. Crafted in Italy circa 1960, this vintage collection features an artful assortment of hand-carved stone fruit sculptures, each beautifully polished to capture the look and feel of real produce. Made from a mix of onyx, marble, and alabaster, the fruits display an elegant array of yellow, whites, and earth tones, with natural veining and marbling that highlight the unique beauty of each stone. The set includes a variety of realistic forms, including peaches, apples, figs, plums, a banana, and a mango, each fitted with wooden stem accents that enhance their lifelike appearance. The fruit sculptures are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and have wonderful polished finished. Ideal for decorative display in bowls, trays, or on open shelving. Largest fruit measures: 2.5"W x 2.5"D x 2.75"H
