Decorate a master bathroom with this elegant pair of antique mirrors. Crafted in, France, circa 1880, each large mirror is rectangular in shape and features a carved frame with simple lines decorated with bead motifs. The Period Directoire style classic frames are dressed with their original mercury glass and original wood backing. Both mirrors are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use and adorn a wonderful patinated gilt finish. Versatile, this pair of mirror could also be used in an entry way or on either side of a mantle. Measures: 46.25" W x 56.25" H
