Decorate a kitchen wall or a breakfast room with this pair of large antique majolica plates. Sculpted in France circa 1880 by Longchamp, one of the plates features sculptural fruit motifs in high relief which includes three apples hanging from tree branches covered with green leaves, and pink flowers on the side. The other platter features two beige apples and one green little apple all embellished with green leaf decor and also attached to a branch with white flowers on the side. The chargers have a green and blue background palette. The decorative wall platters are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn well-maintained, vivid colors. Hanging wire device in the backs for easy installation. The colorful hand-painted faience round plates are stamped on the backside "Longchamp" for further authentication. Measures: 14" diameter
