Add a touch of elegance to an entryway with this striking pair of antique wall mirrors. Crafted in France circa 1890, each oval-shaped beveled mirror is set within a finely detailed bronze frame crowned at the top with the traditional Louis XVI ribbon motif; it is further embellished with graceful foliage accents adorn the sides. At the base, a winged cherub face adds a whimsical, classical touch. Each sconce features three scrolling arms, each fitted with a candle holder. The Louis XVI wall fixtures are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich patinated bronze dore finish. The sconces could be wired if needed. Measure: 9.75"W x 5.25"D x 15.5"H
