This elegant pair of antique armchairs was created in France, circa 1880. The large fauteuils with tall and straight back, stand on tapered and fluted front legs decorated with square medallions at the shoulders over a bombe apron and back legs. The elegant armrests dressed with padded fabric, are embellished with small carved fluted columns on both sides and topped with a round floral medallion. The comfortable and deep seat has a removable plush down seat cushions, and dressed with a complementary round bolster back pillow for ultimate comfort. Both chairs are upholstered with a neutral blue-grey canvas fabric, making them an easy addition to any room. The Restoration style armchairs are in excellent condition and adorn a hand painted white and grey rubbed patinated antique finish. Measures: 29.75" W x 32" D x 39" H.
