Use this elegant pair of antique painted chests of drawers on either side of a mantel, on in an entry way. Crafted in France circa 1860, each cabinet sits on tapered and fluted feet decorated with floral rosette medallion at the shoulder, over a carved apron embellished with a floral decor in the center. Each commode features spline columns along each side, dressed with three drawers across the front, two of them decorated with a center diamond shape medallion and embellished with brass pulls. Both sides are decorated with carved raised panels. The surface is dressed with a painted top. Both Louis XVI style cabinets are in excellent condition with a rich textured and patinated painted finish in the off white palette with the slightest blue hue. These chests of drawers could also be used as nightstands bedside tables on either side of a king size bed in a large master bedroom. Measures: 46" W x 22.25" D x 34.25" H.
