This elegant pair of antique sconces was created in France, circa 1920. The feminine wall fixtures are decorated with hand-painted pink petunia and yellow daffodil flowers, accented with a variety of green leaves. Each colorful wall light has one arm with new wiring for immediate use, embellished with realistic wax candle sleeves and metal bobeches. The metal sconces are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and would make a charming and feminine addition to a bedroom, living room, or powder bath. Measure: 8.75" W x 5.5"D x 14.5" H.
