Decorate a grand foyer, dining room, or even a formal sitting area with this elegant pair of antique carved gilt wood chandeliers. Hand carved in Italy circa 1920, each Italian-inspired fixture beautifully captures the elegance of Italian styles, showcasing exquisite craftsmanship and a luxurious gilded finish. Each chandelier boasts intricate carvings with floral and scroll motifs, exuding a sense of opulence and drama. The six arms are richly adorned with flowing curves, acanthus leaves, and floral accents, adding layers of artistic depth and grandeur. Rewired to meet US electrical standards, each light features decorative candle sleeve covers. The intricately carved stem is embellished with foliage motifs, culminating in a large, cone shaped finial at the base, all executed in high relief. The chandeliers are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use and adorn the original rich patinated gilt finish. Measures: 34" diameter 31.5" height.
