These elegant colorful Famille Rose vases were created in China circa 1950. Standing tall, the large vessels feature a flared rim and circular body. Each body is adorned with bat and peach motifs, characteristic of traditional Chinese design. The bodies of the vases are predominantly turquoise, rich hues of yellow mustard, white and orange palette. The necks and rims feature detailed geometric patterns accentuating the overall ornate appearance. The tall porcelain vases are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. The vases could easily be placed on either side of a mantel or atop of a console. Honorific Kangxi style six character mark on the underfoot for further authentication. 7" Diameter 16" H
