Crafted in France circa 1950, and attributed to Maison Baguès in Paris, these elegant brass cocktail tables are both useful and stylish. Each table has a popular faux bamboo frame with wonderful, clean lines and a modern, neoclassical sensibility; the frame is further embellished with an X crossed bottom stretcher. The low table surfaces are dressed with an inset smoked mirrored glass top. Both midcentury tables are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn a rich patinated gilt finish. Place this pair of matching coffee tables in a living room, library, or office. Since 1860, The Maison Baguès has been located in the center of Paris and specializes in the creation of luxury furniture and lighting. Early on, it became the emblem of French "Savoir-Faire" in wrought iron work, along with French craftsmanship, which is highly valued internationally. Measures: 31.75" W x 23.5" D x 13.75" H
