Decorate a chapel or entry with this early 20th-century French holy water stoup. Resting on a black marble plaque, the religious stoup features a finely detailed pewter relief portraying the Virgin Mary tenderly holding Baby Jesus, with John the Baptist kneeling beside them. The figures are rendered with exquisite detail, showcasing delicate facial expressions and intricate drapery. The dark, shield-shaped marble base adds a solemn, elegant contrast to the silvery pewter figures. This sacred piece combines devotional significance with artistic craftsmanship, reflecting early 20th-century French religious artistry. The stoup is in excellent condition and adorns a rich silvered finish. 9.5"W x 16.25"H
